Foundations of Modern Analysis

The word modern in the title of an analysis text throws this reviewer back to two classics, both now available online. The first, from over a century ago, is Whittaker and Watson's A Course of Modern Analysis (1st ed, 1902); the second, from about half a century ago, is Dieudonné's Foundations of Modern Analysis (1st ed, 1960). Even a brief perusal of these excellent textbooks will shed ...
