Jim does what any self-respecting child would do...he climbs the stalk to see where it will take him. Surprise... a giant is waiting up at the top. Where Jack found a frightening, ferocious giant when he reached the top of his beanstalk, our Jim finds a toothless, elderly giant who has no hair. Things aren't going so well for our giant.

You need two copies of the book, the 3x3 grid board, six Jim and six Giant tokens and 2 or 4 players. It works like noughts and crosses. Players take turns to ask each other questions about the book and when they answer they can put a token on the board. The aim is to be the first player/pair to get three in a row in any direction.

Jim and the Beanstalk - Collaborative Learning

Jim, a boy, climbs a beanstalk only to meet an old, lonely giant. This giant is the son of the giant from "Jack and the Beanstalk," which is referenced in the book. Rather than trying to eat jim (and rather than jim trying to gold from the giant), the giant pays jim to run errands for him, such as get a pair of reading glasses.
