Shadow on the Crown by Patricia Bracewell is a historical novel set way back in 1001 England. Emma is married by arrangement to the king in exchange for certain favors from her brother. The road for Emma is hard. The king doesn't care about her and mostly resents her. She must keep his interest if she is to ever produce an heir.

Shadow on the Crown by Patricia Bracewell

Shadow on the Crown and The Price of Blood are the first two novels in my trilogy about a pre-Conquest queen consort of England, Emma of Normandy. Emma's name is not as familiar to us today as that of Eleanor of Aquitaine or Katharine of Aragon, nevertheless she was actively involved in the reigns of seven kings of England at a time when just surviving so many rulers was a noteworthy accomplishment.
