You've done great job with interviewing Jake Willson. I think making the interview in video format was a good decision. Jake's early life and finding his career path is easy to relate to. It's also interesting, when he tells he got to a point when he was not playing guitar so much, even though he had always wanted to be a guitar player.

Guitarist Profiles with Jake Willson | An Interview

Jake Jackson was a legend in the Old West. His ability with a gun was unmatched. His name brought hope to the oppressed and sent shivers of fear up the spines of outlaws. Jake Jackson was equally as revered among the Comanche where he was raised from an infant to become the Comanche Warrior, White Wolf.
