Reviews

The Story of Ferdinand has inspired, enchanted, and provoked readers ever since it was first published in 1936 for its message of nonviolence and pacifism. In WWII times, Adolf Hitler ordered the book burned in Nazi Germany, while Joseph Stalin, the leader of the Soviet Union, granted it privileged status as the

'Ferdinand' is of course a children's classic and doesn't exactly require recommendation. It is an exceptionally beautiful book: Munro Leaf wrote the story for his friend, the illustrator Robert Lawson who produced a magnificent series of illustrations to accompany the well-crafted minimal narrative.
