(How Not) To Train Up a Child - Tim Challies

Training up a child is to teach, train, direct, start, and to give instruction to them. These are to be done: In the way he should go, how they should live, about his way, differentiating right from wrong, onto the right path, and the way appropriate for him.

Does the Bible Say How to Train Up Your Child?

But if we raise them with purpose, instilling a foundation of Biblical values, and with the objective to be good, kind people who shine God's light wherever they go, then they will be world-changers no matter the path they take. Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.
